CORUM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M. AGGARWAL

Present: Mr. S.S. Chauhan, Advocate.

M.M. AGGARWAL,J

This is Regular Second Appeal. There is an application for condonation of 54 days' delay in re-filing the appeal.

According to the plaintiff, now appellant, she had been employed by the defendant school and then her services are stated to have been terminated. She filed civil suit for declaration. That suit was dismissed. She filed appeal, which had also been dismissed.

Counsel for the appellant argues that the school is affiliated with Punjab School Education Board, which is an instrumentality of the State.

There is no evidence that the defendant/respondent school is either getting grant from the government or is an instrumentality of the State. There are concurrent findings. No law point is involved.

As such, delay in re-filing the appeal is not condoned.

Dismissed.
